—John H. Thornton has gone to Cleveland to represent Phoenix Lodge, No. 123 F. & A. M. in the Grand Lodge of Ohio. He was accompanied by E. A. Underhill.

—Shell P. Miller, of St. Joe, Mo., arrived in Perryburg on Sunday. He had been doing the W. F. at Chicago and is here to visit scenes of childhood and await the arrival of his father who will probably reach here by the first of the coming week.

—Capt. George S. McKnight handed us an invitation to a ball that is something of a relic. It is printed on the back of a playing card, (the ace of hearts), and reads thus: "The pleasure of Miss R. N. Webb's company is solicited at a BALL, on Tuesday evening next, at the house of Mr. Sam'l Patton." Signed J. H. Hall, T. R. McKnight, Jesse Moore, Managers. Canton, Oct. 27, 1815." It will be seen that the invitation was good 78 years ago.

—The Stony Ridge correspondent of the Sentinel says: "We notice by the Journal that the school house lot in district No. 5, Perryburg township, will be sold at public auction, November 4, at 10 o'clock p. m. They are somewhat economical down that way to hold a sale that time of day." This was done to accommodate the above mentioned correspondent, who so frequently finds himself down in District No. 5, at about that hour of the night, and as it is known that he contemplates joining the army of benedicts soon, it was thought he would be interested and could attend the sale at that hour.

NEW RIVER STEAMER.

The Steamer O. B. Reed Purchased for the Perryburg Route.

At last the hopes of the people of Perryburg will be realized and a steamer suitable for the river trade will be placed on the route between Perryburg and all river points next season.

She is a side-wheel steamer, built very much on the plan of the Pastime, but not quite so large. She has double engines, and is now making on her regular route a speed of 14 miles per hour. Her decks are large and her cabins commodious and furnished in suitable style for the comfort of passengers in cold or stormy weather, with steam heaters throughout.

She draws two and one-half feet of water when loaded, and carries 500 passengers. During the winter her promenade and hurricane decks will be extended thus making her still more commodious and comfortable than at present.

The steamer is owned and controlled by Perryburg parties, and will be registered and taxed as Perryburg property, with our fellow townsman, E. L. Kingsbury as manager. Homer Gregory, who for several years has been engineer on the W. R. Burt is also interested in the boat and will be engineer of the new boat.

Perryburg has never had a boat suitable for the river route since the days of Capt. Lock and his steamer Cora Lock, and now the people of this vicinity can't rest assured that they will have the accommodation they have so long wished for.

The boat is so arranged that she can run early and late in the season and furnish comfortable accommodations for her passengers and Manager Kingsbury informs us that she will be put on the route just as early in the Spring as is possible.

Mr. Kingsbury has gone to Wisconsin and will make two trips from Green Bay to Toledo on the steamer. On arriving at Toledo the boat will be laid up for the winter and when she comes out in the Spring our people will have reason to be proud of their river steamer.

Here is success to Manager Kingsbury and his associates in their new enterprise.

—Henry H. Chubb and wife had the misfortune of losing their twin babies, their death occurring on Sunday last of cholera infantum.

—At the morning service of the First Presbyterian church next Sunday, the "World's Fair" will be the subject of Rev. Adam's sermon.

—A. J. Brownberger and wife of Lima City were bereft of their infant child, its death occurring on Monday last. The funeral services were held on Wednesday and the remains buried in Fort Meigs cemetery.

—Grain drills, land rollers and disk harrows are the implements to buy and Wm. Schlecht, Perryburg, is the man to buy of. 24M

—Thomas Franey says George Maxwell is able to inform his friends of the correct number of railroad ties between Perryburg and Toledo. Maxwell counted them last Sunday morning. There is prospects of a duel between Franey and Maxwell. An order has been placed for pistols and coffee for two—the coffee to be loaded.

PEOPLE TAKE GREAT RISKS.

In Carrying Money in Their Houses.
Every house breaker goes prepared to commit murder if needs be to make his escape. Everyone who has money hid about his house is in danger of losing it from fire or thieves, and of losing his life if he stands in the way. The daily reports are sickening in their details.

Put your money in a good bank where it will tempt no robber and will earn you interest. Have you ever seen the vault of The Citizens' Banking Co. of Perryburg? Take your money there and then sleep sound.

Talking Them Over.

(Original in Womanland.)

I was a little woman, the school was unready and hard; "I couldn't run 'em a Winter!" "They'd turn me out in the yard!" "The boys were respecters o' nothin'!" "The girls were triflin' an' poor!" "Directors couldn't be foolish, and I'd make a failure sure." "Give me the school!" so I pleaded. "Such boys make the noblest o' men."

Let me go in among them. Oh, try a woman again!"

Then spoke old Pater Van Gorder, whose board swept down on his chest, "I'm just fur tryin' it brother, let the woman do it her best. Ef she hain't got stubborn wisdom she'll soon be knowin' her place. Let her go right in among 'em with all her daintiest ways; Let her go right in among 'em an' when the Winter is past We'll be a considerin' further, ef a woman's rulin' kin last."

Once more, when I'd talked them over, we met when the roses bloomed, And my face, with the heartiest welcome and joy was surely illumed. They smiled, most hearty upon me and one asked me meek as a dove, "How did you govern them youngsters?" I answered "with prayer and with love."
